A River Dies of Thirst

Mahmoud Darwish

---

Translation by Catherine Cobham

A river was here and it had two banks and a heavenly mother who nursed it on drops from the clouds A small river moving slowly descending from the mountain peaks visiting villages and tents like a charming lively guest bringing oleander trees and date palms to the valley and laughing to the nocturnal revellers on its banks:
'Drink the milk of the clouds and water the horses and fly to Jerusalem and Damascus' Sometimes it sang heroically at others passionately
It was a river with two banks
and a heavenly mother who nursed it on drops from the clouds But they kidnapped its mother so it ran short of water and died, slowly, of thirst.
