Morning Plenary: Young and Running

It's never too early to run for office. Hear from young women who challenged incumbents and broke barriers by running up and down the ballot to champion causes they care deeply about.

Workshops: Politics and Policy

Session 1: Change the World as a Political Leader

Ready to be the change you want to see in your community? Join this interactive session on how to tackle issues that you are most passionate about. Learn the A to Z's of running for political office on your campus and in your community and define your call to action.

Session 2: Legislative Advocacy as a Political Leader

Champion your cause! Learn how to identify what you want to change in your community and work with elected officials and allies to orchestrate policy change.

$50.00 tickets for women under 30. Additional discounts available.
